

Palisades' is a small capitalization investment management firm based in Santa Monica, CA. The firm strives to achieve active returns through a fundamental bottom-up strategy in the small capitalization realm. In the past Palisades has managed portfolios for corporate, public, and Taft-Hartley institutional accounts, as well as, mutual fund strategies and other sub-advisory relationships.

Palisades small capitalization strategy invests in the “top of the class” of the small capitalization universe of companies. We seek companies with positive business momentum and solid balance sheets and/or cash flows. Palisades has established a tradition of investment excellence with the performance of its small capitalization strategy.

Indeed, since inception of the small cap strategy, Palisades has produced attractive returns versus its benchmark. Palisades' Small Cap has been singled out by Informa several times for its solid returns. Please email us an info@palpartners.com to learn more.