Our ACF business sits within the Ares Credit Group, one of the largest self-originating direct lenders in the U.S. and Europe. We provide one-stop financing solutions for small-to-medium sized companies, which we believe are increasingly underserved by traditional lenders. We conduct our self-originated U.S. corporate lending activities primarily through Ares Capital Corporation \(NASDAQ: ARCC\), a leading specialty finance company, and our ACF platform, which provides asset-based and cash flow loans.
