Blog: How Do My 401(k) Contributions Affect My Taxes?

Most 401(k) plans allow participants to contribute to the plan either on a pre-tax basis (Traditional) or an after-tax basis (Roth). Below are the tax considerations for each choice. Pre-Tax Contributions Affect on Taxes When you save pre-tax money in your retirement plan, you don't pay taxes until you withdraw it. The money you save in the plan doesn't count... Read More
