

Drake Capital Advisors is an independently owned manager of alternative investment funds for institutions and family office clients.

Founded in 2001, we seek to deliver outstanding long-term investment performance for clients by managing portfolios of exceptional hedge funds across a range of global strategies. We focus on funds that combine superior investment skill with operational depth and robust infrastructure.

Our experience and skill in sourcing and investing in outstanding hedge fund managers while actively managing portfolio risk has produced attractive absolute and risk-adjusted results for investors seeking long-term capital appreciation.
