

Kovack Advisors, Inc. - Kovack Advisors' business is providing extraordinary service to Independent Advisors so they can focus wholly on the individual and institutional investor. We offer a Turnkey Asset Management Platform that provides industry leading technology combined with world class Asset Managers.

Established in March 2004 by Ron and Brian Kovack, Kovack Advisors, Inc. (KAI) is an SEC Registered Investment Advisor, headquartered in Fort Lauderdale, FL. We have strategic alliances with the most recognized and respected advisory clearing firms in the industry. Advisors who work with KAI have access to an RIA Platform that is second to none in providing comprehensive investment solutions at an independent and competitive price. KAI does not offer proprietary programs. We will always sit on same side of the table with our clients; striving to always be an example of un-biased guidance and trusted advice.

We are pleased to offer our CHOICE Programs, which provide Independent Advisors a wide range of investment options. Our vast range of programs and asset managers are designed to provide a highly client-centric experience and secure assets by meeting the diverse needs of today's demanding clients.
